

Air University Human Research Ethics Committee

- Air University human research ethics committee was established in 2018 and approved by Vice-chancellor of Air University
- It is responsible for ensuring that medical experimentation and human subject research are conducted ethically and in line with national and international laws.
- It is based on ethical principles for medical research involving human

The following committee members are;

1. Registrar
2. Dean Graduate Studies
3. Director Examinations
4. Director Academics
5. Director ORIC
6. Director QEC